

Teeth of the Dog hugs the craggy coral formations of the Caribbean Sea, while the Chavon Course at Dye Fore has five cliffside holes with views of the Chavon River. Interesting note: The Chavon River was used in filming scenes in Jurassic Park.

With water just offshore teeming with blue marlin, you never have far to go to fish in some truly spectacular seas. Inspired by the quaint seaside villages that dot the Mediterranean coastline, the marina is more than just a place to moor, it's an entire community for sport fishermen.

Casa de Campo Resort Something New for Everyone

Teeth of the Dog is the only golf course in the Caribbean that's in GOLF Magazine's "Top 100 Courses in the World."

LA ROMANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC: On most days, golf carts outnumber automobiles at Casa de Campo Resort. With 7,000 acres to explore, it's an undeniable convenience to have your own golf cart as you discover the amenities that define one of the finest warm weather destinations in the world. Don't be surprised if the bellman handing you a golf cart key to one of the approximately 500 vehicles refers to it as your personal "Casa de Campo Lamborghini" for the duration of your stay. If you happen to book the Presidential Suite, you are automatically upgraded to an electric Moke (all the rage in Palm Beach, Florida, and The Hamptons in New York).

"My son is currently at university in London," smiled Jason Kycek, vice president at Casa de Campo. "Our resort reminds me of the famous English rhyme for brides on their wedding day: something olde [symbolizes continuity], something new [optimism for the future], something borrowed [represents happiness], something blue [purity], and a sixpence in your shoe [prosperity]."

The 245-acre outdoor Shooting Centre has 200+ stations for trap, skeet and sporting clays, and pigeon rings. Its 110-foot tower that projects sporting clays is one of the largest in the world.

“Our new rooms, spa, and culinary delights will impress the most seasoned traveler. When you compare our pricing, our value is apparent.” — JASON KYCEK, VICE PRESIDENT

“How does this relate to Casa de Campo? Our something olde refers to Teeth of the Dog Course [ranked the No. 1 golf course in the Caribbean since opening in 1972]; something new, the 58 Premier Club & Suites that opened to rave reviews; something borrowed, the contagious smile of our staff; something blue, the crystal clear azure colored waters at Minitas Beach Club; and a sixpence in your shoe, the total cost of a vacation compared to peers in the Caribbean.”

A PASSION FOR EVERY PURSUIT

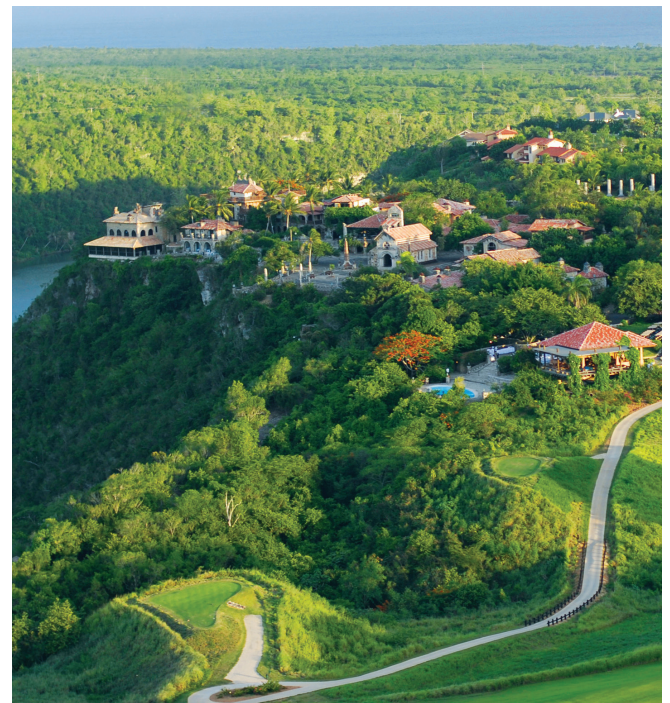

Casa de Campo Resort is an outdoor lover’s paradise, home to three Pete Dye courses (Teeth of the Dog, Dye Fore, and The Links), the 370-slip Marina & Yacht Club, Polo & Equestrian Club, La Terraza Racquet Center, 18,000 square-foot opulent indoor/outdoor spa, and the 245-acre Shooting Club.

“It’s true that you might need a vacation after your vacation,” teased Kycek. “With so many things big and small to discover, you will likely run out of time before seeing all Casa de Campo has to offer. A couple of my favorite on-site activities that might not be top of mind include a private dinner on the second floor at La Pizzetta within Alto de Chavon and watching a newly released motion picture in our fourplex movie theater.

“If you venture off property, consider a tour of Tabacalera de Garcia [the largest hand-rolled cigar factory in the world], a rum tasting at Brugal Distillery in San Cristóbal, or cheer on our local Los Toros team during a baseball game.” ■
