KIAWAH ISLAND, SOUTH CAROLINA: "Our mild climate provides for an abundance of fresh produce," explained Brendon Bashford, executive chef. "Charleston has matured into a culinary hub. Last year, Condé Nast Traveler rated our city the No.1 hot spot for foodies. We are a mecca for James Beard awarded chefs and the variety of food continues to expand. You can choose from a five-course dinner with wine selected by a sommelier to an oyster roast on the beach."
