

BEND, OREGON. . . casually sophisticated

300 days of sunshine + 540 holes of golf = one of the world's top golf destinations.

BEND, OREGON: “We continually hear that time is our most valuable, and rare, commodity,” said Alana Hughson, CEO of the Central Oregon Visitors Association. “With the constant demands of life, we are all seeking a way to stay connected. It’s not just finding the time to travel and play golf with friends and family, but the time to plan the vacation experience.”

The Central Oregon Legends Collection is designed to make a world-class golf vacation easy to plan and easy to enjoy. With a single call or click, you have experts in golf vacation planning to build a custom vacation experience for you, for free. Everything from accommodations and tee times to transportation, dining, recreation and sight-the Legends Collection offers a premier golf experience that together create a one-of-a-kind destination.

Three of the Legends Collection courses rank on Golf Digest’s list of “America’s 100 Greatest Public Courses,” which no doubt is part of the reason why Golf Digest has recognized Central Oregon as one of the country’s top 25 golf destinations.

But what makes a visit to Central Oregon so unique is not just the variety and quality of the golf. It’s the abundant activities and attractions that await golfers when the clubs are put away.

The region is known as an outdoor-lovers paradise with

Big Meadow at Black Butte Ranch

Deschutes Brewery, a landmark in Bend for the past 25 years

seeing; the service is designed solely to make booking your golf vacation easy. With thirty golf courses within an hour of Bend, we understand that choices are vast. What makes this golf destination truly unique is the multitude of other options to enhance the world-class golf product. Whether you want to play 36 holes a day, or find time for other activities, a Central Oregon vacation will be memorable for the entire group.

Golfers will revel in the challenge of the Central Oregon’s Legends Collection—an exclusive collection of five resorts and eight golf courses that are as unique as the world-class designers who created them. Comprised of Black Butte Ranch, Brasada Ranch, Pronghorn Club, Sunriver Resort and Tetherow Golf Club, each resort in hundreds of miles of hiking and biking trails, trophy fly-fishing, inviting mountain lakes and rivers, a microbrewery mecca and an arts and culture scene to awaken every interest. And, there is no sales tax in Oregon, so shopping is guilt free.

Central Oregon is conveniently accessed via the Bend/Redmond airport (RDM), which operates flights daily from most major Western markets including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Salt Lake, Denver, Seattle and Portland. ■

To learn more about the Legends Collection and to begin planning your Stay and Play golf getaway, please contact a Central Oregon Visitors Association golf concierge at (888) 280-3336 or visit golfcentraloregon.com.