STREAMSONG, FLORIDA: The hit comedy, The Hangover is a trilogy of a foursome of friends who set out on a road trip to attend a bachelor party. Antics ensue and the series clearly resonated with moviegoers—grossing $1.4 billion in ticket sales.

“A buddies trip to Streamsong Resort with your foursome of friends will create your own set of memories, although probably not to the same degree of Bradley Cooper and Ed Helms on the big screen!” teased Jim Bullock, director of sales and marketing at Streamsong Resort. “Our three courses are recognized around the world as a great test of golf, but what many are surprised to learn is the wide ranging laundry list of activities we offer once you walk off the 18th green.”

Streamsong Resort sits on 16,000 acres of a closed phosphate mine. For the better part of six decades, much of the land was buffered by wind and rainstorms and sheltered from development.

“The scenery can’t be replicated,” said Bullock. “As a result, our bass fishing, sporting clays, and archery range aren’t a manufactured setting providing the opportunity for
