CASA de CAMPO

PREPARES FOR ITS GOLDEN JUBILEE

“WITH A CHOICE OF THREE DISTINCT PETE DYE DESIGNS, our reputation as an international destination for golf is warranted. When visiting, come with a mind-set to appreciate multiple golf experiences. The golf courses play through varied terrain. Teeth of the Dog arguably has the best set of par-3 seaside holes in the world; The Links Course is our most player friendly layout, but trickier than you think; and Dye Fore offers Instagram-worthy panoramic views of the Caribbean.”

The exclusive resort has been a Caribbean destination for discerning travelers for almost 50 years.

LA ROMANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC: During your first visit to Casa de Campo Resort once you pass the manned welcome gate, Google Maps comes in handy. Spanning more the 7,000 acres (more than the size of Manhattan, NYC), Casa de Campo is an outdoor lovers paradise, home to three Pete Dye courses (Teeth of the Dog, Dye Fore, and The Links), a 370-slip Marina & Yacht Club, Polo & Equestrian Club, La Terraza Tennis Center, and a 245-acre Shooting Club.

“I am from the ‘Big Easy’ in Louisiana and have come to appreciate a good celebration,” grinned Robert Birtel, director of golf operations at Casa de Campo Resort. “Activities within our resort and around town celebrate the best of life. Whether you explore Altos de Chavon, a replica 16th century Mediterranean village within our property; shoot trap or skeet at our world-renowned shooting center; or cheer on our local Toros baseball team, with 5,000 fans at the nearby stadium, you will leave with a wealth of memories.” ■
