

High Desert Splendor Meets Small Town Charm

Mirabel offers warm welcomes, helping hands, and a spirit of close camaraderie in the heart of the Sonoran Desert.

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA: Mirabel Club is a member-owned, debt-free community located 3,000 feet above sea level in Scottsdale. Amenities include a Tom Fazio designed golf course; four Har-Tru tennis courts; a 37,000 square-foot Frank Lloyd Wright-style desert lodge clubhouse; a resort pool; a large fitness center; and easy access to hiking, biking, horseback riding and off-roading trails (including those in Tonto National Forest). “The unbelievable views of the Sonoran Desert valley and city lights of Phoenix and Scottsdale are a sight to behold,” stated Nissa Sjoberg, Mirabel’s director of marketing.

“Mirabel members are drawn to an active lifestyle and a strong sense of community,” continued Sjoberg. “Club facilities are exceptional, but more importantly, it’s the collegial membership [consisting of 275 golf and 50 social members] that stands Mirabel apart from the competition. Social memberships can be upgraded to full golf memberships [subject to availability], so they are a terrific entry point to experience everything we have to offer.”

Mirabel members value their club’s staff as much as the club’s staff embraces the membership. Nowhere was this more evident than during the pandemic. The club sponsored a member-only, four-day charity golf tournament, with 100 percent of proceeds dedicated to Mirabel employees. Community at Mirabel includes all who make Mirabel a special environment.

“In order to continue to be considered a ‘best in class’ facility, it’s imperative to maintain a top-shelf member experience,” stated Sjoberg.

Consistent with that commitment, the club has broken ground on a Master Facilities Plan with completion scheduled by the end of this year. “Among the most significant additions are an enlarged, modern commercial kitchen; more casual dining; a large peninsula bar with accordion folding glass walls; an expanded fitness center; and four pickleball courts,” concluded Sjoberg. “I believe this is an amazing time to visit and a perfect time to join.” ■

For more information, please visit Mirabel.com.

“Mirabel has positioned itself to be a winner in one of America’s most competitive golf markets. Its long-range planning has created a solid financial foundation and a proud, upscale membership. I think private clubs around the world can learn from its management and operations.” — TOM FAZIO

Rendering courtesy of PHX Architecture

