

THE CLUB AT IBIS is located within a 20-minute drive of the Palm Beach Airport, Gardens Mall, Eissey Theatre, beaches of Singer Island, and equestrian communities of Wellington.

Providing a
High-Energy Lifestyle

The Club at Ibis defines “clubs within a club.”

The pool is at the heart of the club—a lush and relaxing retreat where you can exercise, entertain, or nap. The cascading waterfall feature provides calming sounds to those relaxing poolside.

The Pub has proven to be the go-to gathering place. Its 2,500 square-foot outdoor terrace overlooks the 10th and 18th holes of the Legend Course.

The Club at Ibis shares a common property line with the Grassy Waters Nature Preserve. Birdlife doesn't know the difference. The courses are filled with visiting sandhill cranes, blue herons, and roseate spoonbills.

Range rats will find superior practice facilities. Newly added amenities include a Golf Fitting Studio, Covershots mobile canopy, and a South Florida first—Toptracer on the range.

In the past six years, The Club at Ibis has invested more than $57 MILLION IN MEMBER AMENITIES, including a new clubhouse, the Sports Village, and a new Jack Nicklaus Signature Course.

WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA: The Club at Ibis, with over 1,800 homes scattered among 33 lushly landscaped neighborhoods, is the size of a small town. With size comes advantages. "Our lifestyle extends far beyond golf and tennis," smiled Judie Budnick, chairperson of ICA (Ibis Clubs and Activities). "We offer one of the largest, if not the largest, social programming calendars in Florida country clubs. Ibis has '37 clubs within the Club,' varying from serious to whimsical. Our residents come from every imaginable background and have a lot to contribute. Several of our more unusually named clubs include A Knotty Habit [focusing on all needle crafts]; Memoirs: Bits & Pieces of Your Life; Knitting for Charity [with a philanthropic mission]; and our newest endeavor, Investment Insights [theorizing on strategies, learning, and what's next in the market]. In my humble opinion, I don't think there is another private community in South Florida that can hold a candle to our offerings. The Ibis fitness staff is charged with keeping your body strong; ICA endeavors to keep your mind strong.

"Our Great Discussions series has proven to be very popular," continued Budnick. "We discuss and exchange ideas ranging from history to music, travel to current international issues.

"We track participation and welcome new ideas," reported Budnick. "Last year, residents participated 12,111 times in ICA activities and that doesn't even account for card play, golf tournaments or tennis competitions. That works out to an incredible number of members per day—every day of the year—sharing their life experiences." ■
