

Kiawah Island Golf Resort: Where Land Meets Sea

The cottages provide room to congregate.

KIAWAH ISLAND, SOUTH CAROLINA: The Cottages at The Ocean Course offer an immersive Kiawah Island golf experience on the course where Phil Mickelson won the 103rd PGA Championship in historic fashion. Each of the four two-story, four-bedroom cottages occupies an enviable spot, nestled beside the clubhouse and overlooking the driving range with the Atlantic Ocean providing a dramatic backdrop.

The four cottages provide distinctive accommodations for a fully immersive golfing experience. In addition to accommodations in The Cottages at The Ocean Course, guests who enjoy The Ocean Course Cottage Experience will receive daily rounds of golf (including on The Ocean Course), daily breakfast either in The Ocean Course Clubhouse or within their cottage, a personalized welcome amenity, a dedicated concierge who will help make all arrangements both before and after arrival, and daily dedicated housekeeping.

“The foursome of four-bedroom, freestanding cottages are a spacious 3,800 square feet and located within a pitching wedge shot of The Ocean Course’s first tee,” explained Hope Johnston, director of rental management at Kiawah Island Golf Resort. “The experience includes guaranteed tee times on The Ocean Course, an engraved bag tag, full breakfast daily, distinctive welcome amenities, and dedicated concierge and housekeeping service.”

AN AMERICAN ICON

The Ocean Course boasts the most seaside holes in the Northern Hemisphere with ten hugging the Atlantic Ocean, and is ranked one of the “100 Greatest U.S. Golf Courses” by Golf Digest.

“The biggest names in golf have made their mark on our championship courses,” concluded Johnston. “Our new cottages are primely positioned to create ultimate golf memories and deliver the service standards Kiawah Island Golf Resort is famous for.” ■

For more information on The Cottages at The Ocean Course Experience, please visit KiawahResort.com.

