

Your Invitation

to the 2022 Punta Mita Pro-Am

"You're not going to find a prettier place. My courses are exciting to play." — JACK NICKLAUS

PUNTA MITA, MEXICO (45 minutes north of Puerto Vallarta): Noted author Hans Christian Anderson coined the term: "To roam the roads of lands remote, to travel is to live."

The 2022 Punta Mita Pro-Am is your opportunity to join fellow members and your golf professional for competition and camaraderie at one of the world's finest golf retreats. Punta Mita has been more than two decades in the making. The Four Seasons and St. Regis resorts,

"The Pacifico Course features a stunning par-3, nicknamed Tail of the Whale. During low tide, the green is accessible via golf cart. At high tide, an amphibious vehicle is required. What will your team's 'tale' be, playing one of the most unforgettable holes in golf." — John McIntyre, director of golf at Punta Mita situated on a spear-shaped peninsula, offer 9.5 miles of Pacific coastline, multiple sandy beaches, five beach clubs, and two Jack Nicklaus Signature golf courses. Located on the same latitude as the Hawaiian Islands and boasting more than 340 days of sunshine per year, you are virtually guaranteed sunny skies and balmy temperatures.

“Executive Golfer and Punta Mita have a combined 85 years of experience hosting tournaments,” explained Mark Pazdur, publisher of Executive Golfer.

“Then, add in the brands that Four Seasons, St. Regis, and Jack Nicklaus bring to the table and you are destined for a tournament that will be a highlight of the year. We have taken all the guess work out of your travels. As long as you have your passport in hand, you are good to go the moment you land in Puerto Vallarta [airport code: PVR]. Flights are plentiful with 22 US and Canadian airports [including several from the East Coast] offering nonstop service. To add to the convenience, all taxes, tips, and fees in our pricing are included.”

“Both of Punta Mita’s courses [Pacífico and Bahía] were designed by Jack Nicklaus,” described Carl Emberson,

“Our promise, never a dull moment, unless you want one.”

— CARL EMBERSON

son, director of marketing at Punta Mita. “The Pacífico Course, with eight holes directly facing or playing alongside the Pacific Ocean, features the “Tail of the Whale,” an optional par-three hole with the largest natural island green in the world. While the Tail of the Whale is extraordinary, plan a detour to its snack shack when you make the turn before heading to the 10th tee. Each day, a complimentary fruit concoction is served.

“It’s often difficult for a PGA professional to justify travel to Punta Mita. Time and cost are always a consideration,” concluded Emberson. “So, if club members field a team, the pro’s room, golf, most meals, and even airfare are complimentary. This is an opportunity for private club members to reward their pro with the best of south of the border hospitality.” ■

Dates:

Check in: Sunday, April 3 • Check out: Thursday, April 7

Format:

A four-night, three-day golf tournament

Four-person, 36-hole Pro-Am consisting of three paid amateurs and one professional.

Two best balls: One gross, one net with amateurs playing to full handicap.

For the golf professional: Up to a $10,000 purse, with no buy-in required.

Itinerary:

Sunday, April 3: Arrival Day • Airport Transfer

Optional practice round on Bahía Course
Beachside Welcome Cocktail Reception and Dinner

Monday, April 4: Breakfast • Practice round on Pacífico Course
Lunch • Horse Race Shootout • Evening at your leisure

Tuesday, April 5: Breakfast • Tournament Round #1 on Bahía Course • Lunch • Evening at your leisure

Wednesday, April 6: Breakfast
Tournament Round #2 on Pacífico Course • Lunch
Beachside Awards Reception and Dinner

Thursday, April 7: Breakfast • Optional golf
Departure by noontime • Airport Transfer

Non-Golfing Spouses:

Instead of golf, select three activities: A whale watching excursion, cooking class, tequila tasting, and/or massage.

Golf Professional Pricing:

Complimentary: Accommodations at St. Regis for four nights, golf, organized meals, and round trip airport transfer.

Up to a $600 stipend for pro’s airfare.

Spouse/family member joins the fun for only a $450 surcharge.

Questions or to Register:

Please contact Mark Pazdur, tournament director, at Mark@ExecutiveGolferMagazine.com or 949-933-6478.

